

Alpha Kappa Delta

AKD at AACSB Teaching and Learning Pre-Conference Workshop 2018

Norfolk, Virginia Thursday, October 11, 2018

Co-Sponsored by Alpha Kappa Delta and the Association for Applied and Clinical Sociology

- 8:30-8:40am Welcome – Jeffrey Chin, Le Moyne College and Secretary-Treasurer of Alpha Kappa Delta
- 8:40-9:20am World Café and Breakfast – Michele Lee Kozimor-King, Elizabethtown College and Past-President of Alpha Kappa Delta
- 9:20-9:30am Break
- 9:30-10:00am Concurrent Round Table Session 1 Pick from options listed below.
- 10:00-10:10am Break
- 10:10-10:40am Concurrent Round Table Session 2 Pick from options listed below.
- 10:40-10:50am Break
- 10:50-11:50am Barnaga Simulation - Michele Lee Kozimor-King, Elizabethtown College and Past-President of Alpha Kappa Delta and Barbara Prince, Morningside College
- 11:50-12:00pm Closing- Jeffrey Chin, Le Moyne College and Secretary-Treasurer, Alpha Kappa Delta

Roundtable Topics:

Session 1 (9:30-10:00am)

Table 1: Reading Required: Making Preparation for Class Non-negotiable

Janis Prince, Saint Leo University

Table 2: Using Simulation-Games

Jeffrey Chin, Le Moyne College

Table 3: Teaching with Your Strengths: Using the Clifton Strengths Inventory in the Classroom

Barbara Prince, Morningside College and Michele Kozimor-King, Elizabethtown College

Session 2 (10:10-10:40am)

Table 1: Benefits to Students of Participating in the AACSB Client Problem-Solving Competition

Dahlia Gonzalez Molloy, Oklahoma State University

Table 2: Professional Development for Graduate Students and Junior Faculty

Jeffrey Chin, Le Moyne College

Table 3: A Little Bird Told Me: Using Twitter to Increase Student Engagement

Michele Kozimor-King, Elizabethtown College and Barbara Prince, Morningside College