BEST PRACTICES FOR CHAPTER ACTIVITIES

Chapter activities, projects and ideas can be anywhere from creative and elaborate events to original and easy actions. The sky is the limit!

CAREER DEVELOPMENT & PROFESSIONALISM:

- Hold a workshop on etiquette for attending a professional conference
- Hold a Sociological Symposium
- Hold a panel discussion on how to apply to graduate school
- Invite alumni members from the department to talk about where they are now, how they made it there, etc.

SCHOLARSHIP AND RESEARCH:

- Attend and present at a sociological regional conference
- Develop a "Student Research Series" composed of mock conference sessions where students can present their research and receive feedback in a welcoming and non-threatening environment
- Encourage students to submit their papers to AKD's Student Paper Competition

CAMPUS BASED SERVICE ACTIVITIES:

- Host a film night with discussion at the end
- Set up a voter registration table on campus
- Participate in your campus' Student Organization Resource Fair
- Hold a campus-wide presentation with a visiting lecturer on a topic of interest

COMMUNITY BASED SERVICE ACTIVITIES:

- Help clean or rebuild after a natural disaster
- Raise money and construct "free little libraries" around your city
- Help raise money for local organizations and charities
- Host a blood drive, canned food drive, or clothing drive
- Volunteer at a local veteran's hospital, soup kitchen, or community event

Submit your activities and pictures to the Executive Office so we can share your accomplishments with other chapters!
